TEN TOP QUESTIONS TO ASK BEFORE HIRING AN ATTORNEY

Lawyers like to question but when choosing a lawyer, make sure you ask a bunch from the start.

LYTZA ROJAS

HAVE YOU HANDLED CASES LIKE MINE BEFORE? WHAT WERE THE RESULTS?

When looking for a lawyer, you need to be confident they know what they are doing. You need someone who was trained in both spotting potential evidentiary issues and knowing what to do about them when they are found.

For over 20 years, I've helped people facing all kinds of charges—from traffic tickets to very serious cases, even capital murder. Before becoming a defense attorney, I worked as a prosecutor, so I know exactly how the other side prepares their case. That experience helps me find weaknesses in the evidence and build the strongest defense possible.

I've been able to help many clients get charges reduced, dismissed, or resolved in a way that protects their future. More importantly, I make sure my clients never feel alone in the process. I'll explain what's happening at every step, answer your questions, and give you a clear plan so you know what to expect and can feel more at ease.

HOW WOULD YOU HANDLE MY CASE?

Every case is different, but you should always expect a clear plan from the lawyer you trust with your freedom. From the very beginning consultation, I'll sit down with you, review the details, and give you an honest idea of what to expect and the steps we'll take. As your case moves forward, I'll keep you updated on the progress and make sure you know what's happening at every stage.

You'll never be left wondering where things stand. My office is always available for updates or questions, and I'll walk you through the process so you feel informed, supported, and confident about the direction we're taking.

HOW OFTEN DO YOUR CASES GO TO TRIAL?

It really depends on the case. Many can be resolved before trial through negotiation, but what matters most is having a lawyer who's fully prepared to fight for you in court if that's what's needed. From the very start, you want someone with real trial experience on your side.

I've handled thousands of misdemeanor and felony cases and taken more than 100 of them to trial. My entire career has been spent in the courtroom, and I'm ready to stand by you and fight for the best possible outcome—whether that means negotiating a resolution or presenting your case to a jury.

Q

ARE THERE ALTERNATIVES TO TRIAL?

A

Yes. While every client hopes for charges to be dropped, that isn't always possible. In many cases, though, there are alternatives to going to trial. Depending on the facts, that might include negotiating a reduced charge, seeking dismissal of certain evidence, or working out an agreement that lessens the consequences you're facing. What matters is having a lawyer who looks at every angle and fights for the best outcome.

Once I've reviewed all the evidence, I'll sit down with you and go over the options. Together, we'll discuss possible alternatives to trial and make a plan that puts you in the best position for a resolution that protects your future.

Q

HOW LONG WILL THIS CASE TAKE?

A

Every case is different, and the timeline often depends on the court and circumstances. What matters most is that you won't go through this alone. As soon as I have all the evidence, I'll meet with the prosecutor to move your case forward. In the meantime, I want you to feel comfortable reaching out to me or my office anytime with questions or just to check on where things stand.

Q

DO YOU WORK IN THE COURTHOUSE WHERE MY CASE IS?

A

Each courthouse runs a little differently, and it's important to have someone who knows how things work locally. My office is in Georgetown, and I have years of experience practicing in Williamson County as well as courts throughout Central Texas. You can feel confident that I understand the local courts and will use that knowledge to guide your case and protect your best interests.

Q

IF I HIRE YOUR FIRM, WHO WILL I BE WORKING WITH?

A

When you hire me, you can be confident that I'll be the one by your side every step of the way. I believe this is a relationship built on respect, trust, and accountability—and I take that responsibility seriously. I will personally attend all of your court appearances, carefully review all the evidence, and work directly with the prosecutor handling your case. You won't be handed off to someone else—you'll always know exactly who is standing with you.

Q HOW MUCH IS A CONSULTATION GOING TO COST ME?

A Meeting with me for your initial consultation won't cost you anything—it's completely free. This gives us a chance to sit down, talk through your case, and review your options without any pressure. If we decide to move forward together, I'll go over all fees with you in detail so there are no surprises. I also offer affordable payment plans and work hard to create a payment structure that fits your situation.

Q DO YOU HAVE ANY SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE IN CRIMINAL LAW?

A Yes, I do. In Texas, only a small group of attorneys take the extra step to become Board Certified specialists in their field. This certification is carefully overseen by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and requires years of experience, advanced training, and passing a difficult exam. I've been Board Certified in Criminal Law since 2012. For you, this means peace of mind—you'll have an attorney with proven expertise and dedication, fighting for the best possible outcome in your case.

Q WHY SHOULD I CHOOSE YOU?

A Choosing a criminal defense attorney is one of the most important decisions you can make. You deserve someone you feel completely comfortable with—someone who has the experience, patience, and skill to guide you through this process. I believe legal representation is a true partnership, built on trust, honesty, and respect.

When you choose me, you're not just getting a lawyer—you're gaining an advocate who will fight for your future and stand with you every step of the way. I take this responsibility very seriously and work to ease your worries by being open, honest, and fully committed to protecting your rights and your freedom.
